BLACK COFFEE

By Agatha Christie
Directed by Timothy Blundell

This little known mystery will surprise and delight you. Written in 1934, the story concerns a physicist named Sir Claude Amory who has come up with a formula for an atom bomb. In the first act, Sir Claude is poisoned (in his coffee, naturally) and Hercule Poirot is called in to solve the case. He does so after many wonderful twists and turns in true Christie fashion.

THE 39 STEPS

A hit on Broadway and the West End, this thrilling comedy is adapted by Patrick Barlow from the 1935 Alfred Hitchcock film and the 1915 novel by John Buchan. The story centres on Englishman "Richard Hannay," who inadvertently embarks on a chaotic adventure full of narrow escapes after trying to help a female spy. When he wakes up to find her dead in his apartment, he flees from the police and an espionage organization, desperately trying to find the truth.
